BACKGROUND INFO:

Born in Queensland and raised as an only child, her father was a police officer and her mother a waitress. As a younger woman, she was praised as having a natural talent with languages and interpreting ancient cultures. A dedicated archeology student until her mother death of breast cancer, when she decided it was better to live for today than study yesterday. Began a new career as a freelance antiquities supplier, much of which she obtained personally. Makes frequent contributions to museums in Australia, and has a modest amount of artifacts in her personal collection as well.
