Grew up in Virginia and has a younger brother. In high school he was a state champion in the 400-meter run, and still is an avid runner to this day. Relationship with parents has been strained since he joined the Army after high school. Spent time in Iraq as a member of a private sector security company on government contracted escort duty. Quit company after a gun battle in Fallujah where he and his client were the only survivors among a group of 6. Recruited by the Agency shortly after.
