BACKGROUND INFO:

Grew up on the outskirts of Viborg, Denmark where he labored as a farm boy for most of his childhood. Worked the small 120-acre farm with his father and brother until the age of sixteen, where he attributes the start of his considerable strength too. Was home schooled during this time and never furthered his academic career after leaving home. Had a fascination with professional bodybuilding and moved to the capital of Copenhagen to pave a new life. Trained very hard and long for many years and achieved a very impressive physic and build which didn't go unnoticed. Acquires a tremendous amount of raw muscular power, which has landed him into trouble on more than a few occasions. Has visited the lower ward gambling district on multiple junctures where he participated in various bare-knuckles and No-rules street fights in which his sheer power proved superior to all those attending. Was unknowingly involved in a pharmaceutical metabolic enhancement program where vast amounts of unknown, unregulated synthetic and artificial steroids were injected into his body, which nearly doubled his body size and muscular capacity, but tore apart his now fragile psyche and uncontrollable emotional and mental state. Was banned from the Pro Bodybuilding circuit after testing positive for unknown substance enhancements that to this day have not been identified. Tried to get into the Mixed Martial Arts world but there too, could not pass the mandatory drug tests. The Agency kept tabs on him after his fall from grace and offered him a position within The Agency as an Agent to utilize his physical expertise, as long as he attends regular Agency psychiatric, emotional and anger management sessions and evaluations. Has accepted all terms and agreements.

12-12-09 Autopsy revealed Agent slipped into a hypo-psychotic state and was found dead after leaping from a five-story building.
