BACKGROUND INFO: _____

Jumped from city to city until his parents kicked him out at the age of fifteen. Worked in the HVAC business while going to college. Completed a degree in computer programming, and then used his newfound knowledge to break into secure databases. He was captured after breaking into a military system and later recruited into the Agency for infiltration missions. He received Black Ops training. Has an interest in geography and diving. After sneaking into top-secret areas of the military base he was stationed at, Collins was trained in special ops with a specialty in illegal acquisitions. Subject has shown a propensity for violent behavior, though to date it has not interfered with his missions. Further psychiatric evaluation may be necessary.

08/01/2006: Agent was involved in a massive explosion during "Irish Wake" mission. Agent was killed trying to help disarm a highly explosive terrorist bomb consisting of massive amounts of chemical fertilizer and an unknown liquid accelerant. The Agency has anonymously taken care of all funeral arrangements and expenses.
