BACKGROUND INFO:

Grew up an orphan and was transferred from home to home throughout childhood. Enlisted into the Armed Services after high school in which he later became a featured running back for the Army Black Knights. Became a very well versed and trained soldier with his stay in the Army. Possesses excellent marksman abilities, especially in long-range situations. Has won many awards for his marksmanship along with his athletic prowess. No criminal background record on file. Heterosexual, with ties to many girlfriends throughout his football career. Likes hiking, night clubs and deer hunting in which he travels every year down south to Tennessee during the hunting season. Was accepted into the Agency to fulfill many roles, especially in the area of stealth tactics and/or a long-ranged Sniper. Has matured very fast within the Agency after several missions and is leaning towards embarking on a new career within the Agency, of becoming a Cleaner. 08/01/2006: Agent was involved in a massive explosion during "Irish Wake" mission. Agent was killed trying to help disarm a highly explosive terrorist bomb consisting of massive amounts of chemical fertilizer and an unknown liquid accelerant. The Agency has anonymously taken care of all funeral arrangements and expenses.
