BACKGROUND INFO:

Born in Los Angeles and raised by his mother alone, but had a very troubled childhood. Joined the Los Perro Hermanos street gang at age 15, along with his older brother Jose. Critically wounded in a drive by shooting by a rival gang at age 19 and his brother died in the same turf war a short time later. Recruited after a street race in LA where he was matched against an undercover agent. The Agent took note of his steady hands and lightning-quick reflexes on the road. A talented driver and mechanic, preferring to work on anything he gets behind the wheel of. Has a personal preference to American muscle cars, especially Camaros and Mustangs. Quick thinking and cool under pressure, but sometimes overconfident and severely lacking in discipline. Has been placed on probation for driving and Agency issued vehicle in street races on multiple occasions, crashing in of these instances.
