BACKGROUND INFO:

Raven was born Alex Masters to a Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan and Anna Masters. Jonathan, now a retired Congressman and Anna a Biochemist lives now in a retirement community in Florida. Alex has one brother, David Masters. David, following in his father's footsteps is now currently running for a seat in congress. Jonathan is lending his full support Alex however never understood or showed a aptitude towards politics. He led a more spiritual/disciplined life. After a few minor brushes with the law when Alex was 14 his father sent him to a boarding school casting him out from the family labeled as a disappointment. Alex never arrived at the school however.

Alex ran away during transport to the school and acquired passage on a transport ship as a deckhand. He was befriended by a man named Chow Mei, a Martial arts expert. During their 18-month tour aboard ship the new mentor taught his new student in the ancient arts. Following his work aboard ship, Alex was recruited by a Japan based MMA organization where he accumulated a record of 13-1. After suspiciously losing his last fight he awoke in what would eventually become his home in the agency. Alex has yet to visit his family since his recruitment. He now resides in dc and dedicates his life to defending the constitution.

Update: Since joining the agency Alex Has played a key roll in the protection of his; teammates, mission, Most notably was the rescue and subsequent Psychiatric help of a Katherine , and assisting in recruiting now fellow agent Jacobs.

Update: During a sabbatical to eastern Asia before his assignment to Machine Head, he met a young woman (now known as FireFly) with a good ability and a strong affliction for the martial arts. After a few not so random encounters he took her on as a understudy slowly teaching her everything he knows.
