BACKGROUND INFO:

Born and raised in and around Cologne, in the area of Germany commonly known as the Rhineland. Has a fondness for all things German, especially its beer. Joined the German army at 18 and served time with NATO coalition forces in Kosovo and Afghanistan.

A tank and IFV operator for most of his military career, he has been in several firefights and always came out on the winning side. Has a fondness for driving his favorite vehicle, a Marder APC, around camp and doing spins while blasting Berlin club music. Recruited by the Agency for his overall battlefield diversity and experience in the modern war zones, where civilians are more common than not.
