BACKGROUND INFO:

During the early years of his life, he had spent many times on the road as well as in the air in unknown locations and not staying more than a few days sometimes short months from one place to another as the parents of Soran were secret agents and he followed in darkness.

During the early years during one of the missions the parents never came back and were taken by the secret agency where they were using as small bait for small projects that started as low as pick pocketing, lock picking, disarming, and various other sources of computer hacking.

Most of the missions in the early years involved the growth in various other countries that ended up in London for the most part using the landscapes to many of the buildings to use during the night. Unfortunately, he had learned much of the backgrounds as well as breaking away from the agency and from their grasp and using the skills to avoid their own traps. This also complicated things as he was not known as a common thief and had to learn very high level security to avoid all during the day and move more freely at night.

Unfortunately, playing both sides also means the learning of many conspiracies makes a target for this agent. from not only agencies of light and dark, but the common folks as well if he is discovered.
