BACKGROUND INFO:

Catherine is an only child. Her mother died after a failed battle against brain cancer. Her father currently resides in Washington, DC, and maintains a governmental position.

Catherine was an exceptionally gifted child, garnishing above average grades during her time spent at Roosevelt High School, and spent most of her extra curricular time with the drama club. Upon graduation, she immediately enrolled into the D.C. Police Academy where she began training as a member of S.W.A.T. Her mother's demise interrupted her training, forcing her to leave the program before its completion. However, she retains the knowledge of various tactics, weaponry and a focus on sniper training.

Haunted by her mother's death, Catherine chose to leave the comforts of home and travel to New York in search of a new beginning. It was her hopes to break into Broadway, but she can currently be found working as a dancer at The Playpen, one of New York's many strip clubs. Her father has no knowledge of this, and believes his daughter works as a 2nd shift waitress.

Her lifestyle is modest offering a 1-Bedroom apartment and a Jeep Renegade. If she wanted, she could afford better, but most of her money goes into savings as she works and looks for something different out of life.

She is volatile, sarcastic, beautiful, and accurate in most aspects of her life and will always be there to support a friend in need. However, these qualities can be most dangerous to those who would attempt to contain her spirit or back her into a corner.
