BACKGROUND INFO:

An orphan as a child, she used her acting ability to get attention. As she got older, she decided to make a career out of it and went for formal training. She then spent many years doing off Broadway shows, learning all she could about how to make herself look like anyone through hairstyles and makeup. Deciding to go for the big time, she did a reading for what is now a major Broadway play, to which she was unsuccessful. From there she decided to travel and explore the world to absorb different cultures and languages. After two years of travel, she was approached by the Agency to put her skills to use and she accepted.
