Agents arrived in Iran expecting a routine halo jump only to be ambushed by gunfire. The plane was hit nearly killing one "relieved" agent in the jon just to get tackled out a gaping hole where the hull used to be by java. Miraculously all agents landed unharmed to the ground and fought to the facility. After making contact with Islani the agents swam out through hazardous waste tunnels to narrowly escape a tragic end to piranha who suffered radiation poisoning. All objectives were cleared.
